

Heavy Duty Windows

Specifications

- The Heavy Duty windows are designed particularly for the most rugged marine applications.
- They are made Fixed (non-opening) or swing type opening as [per customer requirement.
- The glass thickness ranges from 8mm up to 19mm tempered glasses. Frames are available in anodized, or a selection of powder coat colors.
- These windows are manufactured according to ISO 3903 and can be offered with Class approval with any classification societies.